

Issues Covered by ENHESA's EHS Regulatory Monitoring Service for Products
Design – Marketing – Use – End-of-Life – Take-Back

1. General Product Policy

1.1 Product Policy

2. Product Design

2.1 Product Review – Life Cycle Analysis

2.2 Chemical Restrictions

(including asbestos, cadmium, mercury, lead, brominated flame retardants, azo-colorants, polychlorinated biphenyls, ozone depleting substances,...)

2.3 Energy Efficiency

2.4 Non-ionizing Radiation

3. Marketing Conditions

3.1 Supplier and Product Registration

3.2 Product Certification

3.3 Packaging

3.4 Compulsory Labelling

3.5 Import/Export Restrictions

3.6 Publicity

4. Marketing Facilitator

4.1 Industry Initiatives

4.2 Voluntary Labelling

4.3 Purchasing Guidelines

4.4 Fiscal Incentives

4.5 Green Awards

5. End-of-Life

5.1 Take-back / Reverse Logistics

5.2 Recycling / Disposal

6. List of Environmental, Health and Safety Legislation of Interest to Products

The list of Acts are sorted in chronological order. Under each Act, the subsidiary legislation is listed in chronological order. Latest amendments are indicated between brackets at the end of the citation. For each regulatory instrument, the title in the original language and an indicative English translation are provided. When available, links to the legislation on internet are indicated at the end of the citation, identifying whether the file is in Adobe Acrobat (Pdf), MSWord (MSWord) or HTML (Html).